EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An informal examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

In the claims: quotation marks before and after the formula in line 3 of claim 2, line 3 in claim 4 and last line of claim 5 have been deleted.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

2. Claims 1-2 are allowed because the prior art fail to teach a temperature detecting device comprising connecting two heat sensitive resistance elements in parallel between a power source and a ground through one of a pull-up and a pull-down resistance and extracting a voltage of the two heat sensitive resistance elements by a resistance divisional voltage, and connecting any one of the two heat sensitive resistance elements between the power source and the ground through one of a pull-up resistance and pull-down resistance and extracting a voltage of the one of the heat sensitive resistance element by a resistance divisional voltage, in-combination with the remaining limitations of claims 1-2.

3. Claims 3-5 are allowed because the prior art fail to teach a temperature detecting device comprising connecting two heat sensitive resistance elements in series between a power source and a ground through one of a pull-up and a pull-down resistance and extracting a voltage of the two heat sensitive resistance elements by a resistance divisional voltage, and connecting any one of the two heat sensitive resistance elements between the power source and the ground through one of a pull-up resistance and pull-down resistance and extracting a voltage of the one of the heat sensitive resistance element by a resistance divisional voltage, in combination with the remaining limitations of claims 3-5.

Inventorship

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The prior art cited in the PTO-892 and not mentioned above disclose related devices and methods.

Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to the Examiner, Gail Verbitsky who can be reached at (571) 272-2253 Monday through Friday 8:00 to 4:00 ET.
